3. INTERPRETATION

- Words and expressions used and not defined in these regulations but defined in the Securities and Exchange Board of India Act, 1992 (15 of 1992), the Securities Contracts (Regulation) Act, 1956, the Depositories Act, 1996 or the Companies Act, 2013, the SEBI (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015, the SEBI (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015 or any other relevant legislation/law applicable to the Company, as amended from time to time and rules and regulations made thereunder shall have the meanings respectively assigned to them in those legislation.
- This Code can be modified/amended/alterd only by Board of Directors of the Company. But in case of any statutory modification or amendment or alteration of the provisions of Securities and Exchange Board of India (Prohibition of Insider Trading), Regulations 2015, the newly modified/amended/alterd provisions of the Regulation shall be deemed to be implemented in the Code immediately with effect from the date of the statutory notification for modification or amendment or alteration etc.

4. ROLE OF COMPLIANCE OFFICER

- (a) The Compliance Officer shall report on insider trading to the Board of Directors of the Company and in particular, shall provide reports to the Chairman of the Audit Committee, if any, or to the Chairman of the Board of Directors on annual basis.
- (b) The Compliance Officer shall assist the Designated Persons in addressing any clarification and/or issues relating to or arising out of the SEBI Insider Trading Regulations and the Code.

5. PRESERVATION OF CONFIDENTIALITY OF PRICE SENSITIVE INFORMATION

- All Information shall be handled within the organisation on a need to know basis and no unpublished price sensitive information shall be communicated to any person except in furtherance of the legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of legal obligations.
- Unpublished price sensitive information may be communicated, provided, allowed access to or procured, in connection with a transaction that would :- :

CODE OF CONDUCT – INSIDER TRADING

- entail an obligation to make an open offer under the takeover regulations where the Board of Directors of the Company is of informed opinion that the proposed transaction is in the best interests of the Company; or
- not attract the obligation to make an open offer under the takeover regulations but where the Board of Directors of the Company is of informed opinion that the proposed transaction is in the best interests of the Company and the information that constitute unpublished price sensitive information is disseminated to be made generally available at least two trading days prior to the proposed transaction being effected in such form as the Board of Directors may determine.
- However, the Board of Directors shall require the parties to execute agreements to contract confidentiality and non-disclosure obligations on the part of such parties and such parties shall keep information so received confidential, except for the limited purpose and shall not otherwise trade in securities of the Company when in possession of unpublished price sensitive information.
- “need to know” basis means that Unpublished Price Sensitive Information should be disclosed only to those within the Company who need the information to discharge their duty and whose possession of such information will not give rise to a conflict of interest or appearance of misuse of the information.
- Identification of UPSI and maintaining its confidentiality

All the UPSI shall be identified and its confidentiality shall be maintained as per the requirements of this Code and SEBI Insider Trading Regulations.

- Procedure for Enquiry in case of leak of UPSI

The Company shall formulate written policies and procedures for inquiry in case of leak or suspected leak of unpublished price sensitive information, which shall be approved by Board of Directors of the Company and accordingly initiate appropriate inquiries on becoming aware of leak of unpublished price sensitive information or suspected leak of unpublished price sensitive information and inform the Board promptly of such leaks, inquiries and results of such inquiries

- Digital database of information

The board of directors shall ensure that a structured digital database is maintained containing the names of such persons or entities as the case may be with whom UPSI is shared along with the Permanent Account Number or any other identifier authorized by law where Permanent Account Number is not available. Such databases shall be maintained with adequate internal controls and checks such as time stamping and audit trails to ensure non-tampering of the database.

Further, the structured digital database shall be preserved for a period of not less than eight years after completion of the relevant transactions and in the event of receipt of any information from the Board regarding any investigation or enforcement proceedings, the relevant information in the structured digital database shall be preserved till the completion of such proceedings.

CODE OF CONDUCT – INSIDER TRADING

6. PREVENTION OF MISUSE OF “UNPUBLISHED PRICE SENSITIVE INFORMATION”

- The Designated Persons in the inside areas shall not communicate any Unpublished Price Sensitive Information to anyone in the public areas.
- In exceptional circumstances, the Designated Persons from the public areas may be communicate in furtherance of legitimate purpose, performance of duties or discharge of legal obligations and given the Unpublished Price Sensitive Information on a 'need-to-know' basis upon intimation to the Compliance Officer.
- No Insider shall trade in securities that are listed or proposed to be listed on a stock exchange when in possession of unpublished price sensitive information.

7. TRADING PLANS:

- An insider shall have an option to formulate a trading plan and present it to the compliance officer for approval and public disclosure pursuant to which trades may be carried out on his behalf in accordance with such plan.
- Such trading plan shall:-
 - (a) not entail commencement of trading on behalf of the insider earlier than one hundred and twenty calendar days from the public disclosure of the plan;
 - (b) not entail overlap of any period for which another trading plan is already in existence;
 - (c) set out following parameters for each trade to be executed:
 - i. either the value of trade to be effected or the number of securities to be traded;
 - ii. nature of the trade;
 - iii. either specific date or time period not exceeding five consecutive trading days
 - iv. price limit, that is an upper price limit for a buy trade and a lower price limit for a sell trade, subject to the range as specified below:
 - a) for a buy trade: the upper price limit shall be between the closing price on the day before submission of the trading plan and upto twenty per cent higher than such closing price
 - b) for a sell trade: the lower price limit shall be between the closing price on the day before submission of the trading plan and upto twenty per cent lower than such closing price; and
 - (d) not entail trading in securities for market abuse.
- The Compliance Officer shall review the Trading Plan made as above to assess whether the plan would have any potential for violation of the Regulations and shall approve it forthwith. However, he/she shall be entitled to seek such express undertakings as may be necessary to enable such assessment and to approve and monitor the implementation of the plan as per provisions of the Regulations.

However, pre-clearance of trades shall not be required for a trade executed as per an approved trading plan.

However, the trading window norms shall not be applicable for trades carried out in accordance with an approved trading plan.

- The trading plan once approved shall be irrevocable and the insider shall mandatorily have to implement the plan, without being entitled to either execute any trade in the securities outside the scope of the trading plan or to deviate from it except due to permanent incapacity or bankruptcy or operation of law.

However, the implementation of the trading plan shall not be commenced, if at the time of formulation of the plan, the insider is in possession of any unpublished price sensitive information and the said information has not become generally available at the time of the commencement of implementation.

Further, if the insider has set a price limit for a trade under point (c) and (d) of point 7 of this code, then the insider shall execute the trade only if the execution price of the security is within such limit. If price of the security is outside the price limit set by the insider, the trade will not be executed.

Furthermore, In case of non-implementation (full/partial) of trading plan due to either reasons enumerated in this point or failure of execution of trade due to inadequate liquidity in the scrip, the following procedure shall be adopted:

(i) The insider shall intimate non-implementation (full/partial) of trading plan to the compliance officer within two trading days of end of tenure of the trading plan with reasons thereof and supporting documents, if any.

(ii) Upon receipt of information from the insider, the compliance officer, shall place such information along with his recommendation to accept or reject the submissions of the insider, before the Audit Committee in the immediate next meeting. The Audit Committee shall decide whether such non-implementation (full/partial) was bona fide or not.

(iii) The decision of the Audit Committee shall be notified by the compliance officer on the same day to the stock exchanges on which the securities are listed.

(iv) In case the Audit Committee does not accept the submissions made by the insider, then the compliance officer shall take action as per the Code of Conduct.

- The compliance officer shall approve or reject the trading plan within two trading days of receipt of the trading plan and notify the approved plan to the stock exchanges on which the securities are listed, on the day of approval.

8. TRADING WINDOW

Trading Window shall be used as an instrument of monitoring trading by designated persons.

- The Trading window shall be closed when the Compliance Officer determines that a designated person or a class of designated persons can be reasonably be expected to have possession of unpublished price sensitive information. Such closure shall be imposed in relation to such securities to which such unpublished price sensitive information relates. Designated persons and their immediate relatives shall not trade in securities when the trading window is closed.

However, for unpublished price sensitive information not emanating from within the Company, trading window may not be closed.

- The trading period, i.e. the trading period of the stock exchanges, called “trading window”, is available for trading in the Company’s securities.

CODE OF CONDUCT – INSIDER TRADING

- The trading window shall be, inter alia, closed from the end of every quarter till 48 hours after declaration of financial results. The gap between clearance of accounts by audit committee and board meeting should be as narrow as possible and preferably on the same day to avoid leakage of material information.
- Trading Window for events other than financial results, shall be closed for the period as may be determined by the Compliance Officer of the Company from time to time. The Compliance Officer after taking into account various factors including the unpublished price sensitive information in question becoming generally available and being capable of assimilation by the market, shall decide the timing for re-opening of the trading window, however in any event it shall not be earlier than forty-eight (48) hours after the information becomes generally available.
- During closure of trading window, Designated Persons (and their relatives) shall not trade in the Securities of the Company.
- All Designated Persons (and their relatives) shall conduct all their dealings in the securities of the Company only in a valid trading window and shall not deal in any transaction involving the purchase or sale of the Company's securities during the periods when the trading window is closed, as referred above or during any other period as may be specified by the Company from time to time.
- The trading window restrictions mentioned in sub-clause (1) shall not apply in respect of –
 - (a) transactions specified in clauses (i) to (iv) and (vi) of the proviso to sub regulation (1) of regulation 4 and in respect of a pledge of shares for a bonafide purpose such as raising of funds, subject to pre-clearance by the compliance officer and compliance with the respective regulations made by the Board;
 - (b) Transactions which are undertaken in accordance with respective regulations made by the Board such as acquisition by conversion of warrants or debentures, subscribing to rights issue, further public issue, preferential allotment or tendering of shares in a buy-back offer, open offer, delisting offer or transactions which are undertaken through such other mechanism as may be specified by the Board from time to time.

9. PRE CLEARANCE OF TRADE

When the trading window is open, Designated Person shall trade in Securities of the Company subject to preclearance by the Compliance Officer if the value of such securities acquired or disposed of, whether in one transaction or a series of transactions over any calendar quarter, aggregates to a traded value in excess of ten lakh rupees.

- Designated Person (and/or their immediate relative) who proposes to execute trade in Securities of the Company shall submit an application duly filled and signed to the Compliance Officer. The format of application is annexed as Annexure "A". It is clarified that the designated person should submit the application on behalf of his/her immediate relative(s), for trades proposed to be executed by the immediate relative(s).
- Prior to approving any trades, the Compliance Officer shall seek declarations to the effect that the applicant for pre-clearance is not in possession of any unpublished price sensitive information. He/She shall also have regard to whether any such declaration is reasonably capable of being rendered inaccurate.

CODE OF CONDUCT – INSIDER TRADING

- The Compliance Officer shall approve / reject pre-clearance application within two working days in Annexure “B”.
- Designated Person shall execute pre-cleared trade within seven trading days from approval and shall report the trade details to the Compliance Officer in Annexure “C” within 2 trading days from the trade. In case of non-trading, Designated Person shall report his/her decision of non-trading along with reasons to Compliance Officer in Annexure “C”.
- In case of failure in executing trade within seven trading days, Designated Person (shall be required to take fresh preclearance for the trades to be executed in Annexure “A”.
- Designated Person who is permitted to trade shall not execute a contra trade within next six months from previous transaction. The Compliance Officer may grant relaxation from strict application of such restriction for reasons to be recorded in writing without violating the Regulations. If contra trade is executed, inadvertently or otherwise, in violation of such a restriction, the profits from such trade shall be liable to be disgorged for remittance to the Securities and Exchange Board of India for credit to the Investor Protection and Education Fund. This restriction shall not be applicable for trades pursuant to exercise of stock options.
- In case of any violation of this code, the company shall promptly inform the stock exchange(s) where the concerned securities are traded, in such form and such manner as may be specified by the Board from time to time.

10. DISCLOSURE

- Initial Disclosure
 - Every person on appointment as a Key Managerial Personnel or a Director of the Company or upon becoming a Promoter or member of the Promoter Group shall disclose his holding of Securities as on the date of appointment or becoming a promoter, to the Company within seven days of such appointment or becoming a promoter, in the format prescribed under the Regulations in Annexure “D” – Form A.
- Continual Disclosure
 - Every Promoter, member of the Promoter Group, Designated Person and Director of the Company shall disclose to the Company the number of such Securities acquired or disposed of within two trading days of such transaction if the value of the Securities traded, whether in one transaction or a series of transactions over any calendar quarter, aggregates to a traded value in excess of Rs. 10 Lakhs (Rupees Ten Lakhs), in the format prescribed under the Regulations in Annexure “D” – Form B.
 - The Company shall notify the particulars of such trading to the stock exchange on which the securities are listed within two working days of receipt of the disclosure or from becoming aware of such information.
- Disclosures by other Connected Persons

The Company, at its discretion requires any other Connected Person or class of Connected Persons to make disclosures of holdings and trading in securities of the Company in such form and at such frequency as may be determined by the Company in order to monitor compliance with these Regulations in Annexure “D” – Form C.
